

SCOTT MITCHELL & ANDI LEVIN | We're Engaged!

July 2nd started out like most any other day, but it ended unlike any we have ever come close to experiencing.. We started out on a date and ended up...

Engaged to be married!!

After a week full of activity working with the Orlando Summer Project, we had the night off. Scott spent the afternoon preparing for the evening ahead and Andi relaxed at home somewhat skeptical of Scott's somewhat atypical behavior (for him at least :-). Earlier in the week, Scott had started planning this date, but without any explanation of what the night would bring. Our date began at 7PM; Scott picked me up and headed to an undisclosed location that turned out to be Scott's house.

Upon arriving there, he ushered me into his room where he gave me pictures of us from the past nine months, construction paper, glue, and posterboard to make a collage. At ~8PM dinner was ready, and Scott escorted me to the kitchen. All the lights were off, many candles adorned each room and corner of the house, and countless vases holding a total of one hundred roses covered the countertop, table, and shelves. A collection of romantic music enhanced the ambiance all the more. This was hardly a date; it was a symphony of love!

As I sat on the couch, Scott washed my feet, symbolizing his desire to love me and serve me forever. Instantly the tears flowed. In no way did I deserve this treatment! After a few hugs, Scott invited me to join him on the floor. He told me why I am so special to him and for the first time told me that he loved me. He then slipped his hand beneath the couch to uncover a box with a diamond ring within it.

He then asked me the "the question..."

"Will you be my wife?" My answer... YES!

Taking in the experience, we sat on the floor for a few more minutes and then headed to the kitchen for a beautiful meal of mozzarella and spinach-stuffed steak, vegetables and salad. Then, we hit the phones at 9:30PM followed by apple cobbler a la mode. Quite the night indeed!

ANDI regarding Scott: Never in my life have I so vividly experienced unconditional love and acceptance as I have in my relationship with Scott. He has demonstrated that he will love me like Christ loves the church. This humbles me. I look forward to our life together—loving and serving each other and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

SCOTT regarding Andi: Andi has brought so much joy to my life. She is a beautiful and virtuous young woman. God is richly blessing me by giving me someone who fits me. I like to say, "He made us like each other."

OUR FUTURE: We plan to get married in the late fall, most probably December 4. In January, Andi's status will change from 'intern' to full-time staff. Scott will accompany Andi to New Staff Training in Daytona Beach, FL. Beginning in February, we will spend time in our hometowns, Great Falls, VA and Cynthia, KY, raising support to report back to Campus Crusade Headquarters. Our financial needs will greatly increase as we serve as a married couple. We desire to continue in our partnership in ministry with you.

Yours in Christ,

Scott & Andi

Prayer Requests

WEDDING PLANNING

After three weeks it seems quite daunting.

OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

That we will put Him first during this time and that He will be at the center of our wedding celebration.

OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH EACH OTHER

That we would continue to grow in love with each other as we prepare to be married.

Please note: The pictures in this letter are of a reenactment of our engagement night. We actually dressed up for the real thing. :-)
